Digital India - What Role for Standards, Regulations and IP?

Panel Discussion Moderator
Kiritkumar Lathia
C.Eng., Fellow FIET (UK)

COMSNETS 2015 Panels Co-Chairs
- Niranth Amogh, Huawei
- Ishwardutt Parulkar, Cisco
Role of Standards: 5W + H

- Why?
- What?
- When?
- Where?
- Who?
- How?

Role for Standards, Regulation and IP in India
Government, Service Providers, Network Operators, Research Labs, Academia, SMEs, Vendors, Consumers, ... National & International

Contributes to

Standards  IP  Regulations

Foundation for Digital Industry

Basis for

GLOBAL NON FRAGMENTED ICT Infrastructure

Basis for

EFFICIENT Digital economy
Panel Discussion Theme - 1

- “Make In India”: What impacts do standards and regulation have?
- How can India reduce its IP trade imbalance?
- How can India participate effectively in global standardization given its lack of standards experts?
- How to build standards expertise in India?
- How can India create its indigenous SMEs who may face prohibitive IP costs to implement standards?
Panel Discussion Theme - 2

- Does (local content) regulation have a role in Digital India?
- How can India provide solutions which are cost effective given its societal diversity (languages, urban-rural, culture, education level, ...)
- How to build a Innovation process for Digital India to sustain the economic growth beyond 2020?
- Digital India, Vision for 2020 Standardization needs - Emerging digital technologies, processes and services?
References

• Digital India - A programme to transform India into a digitally empowered society and knowledge economy, Aug’14.

• National Telecommunications Policy 2012

• World’s Leading ICT Standards Organizations Collaborate on Emerging Technologies, Jul’14